the Rappahannock Music Society.

The Rappahannock Music Society is pleased to announce its 27th Sonata/Sonatina Festival. The purpose of this event is to encourage students of every level and ability to explore this interesting field of their repertoire and to experience the joy of achieving a musical goal.

*This event is open to all instruments: not just piano.

*Students may be accompanied by another student or their teacher if necessary.

*Students may play any movement or combination of movements from a sonata or sonatina.

*Music is to be performed by memory with the following exceptions: ensembles (duets, trios, etc.) and adult students may use music. Solos with an accompanist must be memorized. The accompanist may use music.

*Students should bring their music with every measure numbered and two copies of the Official RMS Rating Sheet.

*All participants will receive comments from the judges, a certificate and a rosette ribbon.

*Students will be scheduled in one hour blocks like a mini recital.

All participants, their family and friends are expected to stay for the entire hour. Everyone will be excused at the same time after every student in the room has performed.

Please be polite and do not ask to be excused early.

*Practice rooms are provided only for students who are studying music at UMW. They are not to be used by visitors to Pollard Hall. They are not warm-up facilities. Furnishings and equipment may not be removed from any room

*Xeroxed or copied music will not be allowed in the room.

*Recital dress is expected.

*Video cameras, digital cameras, recording devices, etc. may not be used during the performances. Anyone wishing to photograph may do so after all of the students in the room have performed. Please NO cell phones, pagers, games that make noises. Let us be considerate of the student performers.

*All of the teachers participating in this festival do so as volunteers. The registration fee covers rental of the building, cost of ribbons, certificates etc.

The festival takes place at The University of Mary Washington in Pollard Hall located along College Avenue near the UMW/MWC "Smokestack." Parking is available along College Avenue or in the parking lot across from the Fine Arts Complex and adjacent to the Heating Plant with the smoke stack.
